AI HAYASAKA

Ai Hayasaka

- ◆ Shuchi'in Academy, High School Second Year
- ◆ Notable physical trait: One-quarter Irish
- ◆ Main role: Kaguya Shinomiya's personal valet

The Hayasaka family was once prominent, but lost their conflict to the Shinomiya family and, noted for their fine bloodline, were absorbed into it.

Ai was born in the Shinomiya family's main house as a thoroughbred servant, and was given a special education. She was born into and grew up in an isolated world like Kaguya was, but Ai is less sheltered.

She can adopt multiple personalities to suit the situation, most notably her maid mode and gal mode. Not many people know her true personality, which is in fact similar to Kaguya's — she actually gets scared and cries easily.

Hayasaka's father is Kaguya's godfather, and her mother was Kaguya's wet nurse. They were raised together for a short period after their births, but Kaguya was moved to the Shinomiya main house on her second birthday, and they were only reunited at the age of seven, when their status as master and servant was made official.

Their master/servant relationship is only on the surface, however — their true relationship more resembles that of inseparable sisters.
